Her husband, who died about a year since, was a relative of the late Captain Lloyd of Ripley.

Mrs. Lynch will leave with the remains at 3:30 this afternoon for Cambridge, where the interment will take place under the auspices of the Eastern Star and daughters of Rebekah, of which Orders Mrs. Bold was a member.

DIED AT TOLLEBORO.

MRS. JAMES L. BRISCOE.

Death Yesterday Noon at Her Home on Forest Avenue.

Mrs. Carrie Jane Briscoe, aged 40 years and wife of James L. Briscoe, died at her home on Forest avenue at noon yesterday, leaving her father, husband and an adopted boy to mourn her untimely end.

Two months ago she was taken with stomach trouble, which grew and intensified until a general complication seized her two weeks ago, since which time her condition being hopeless her end was a matter of time.

In 1895 Miss Taylor she was united in marriage to Mr. Briscoe in Madison county, and a few years ago came here to reside.

In early life she united with the Baptist Church, and her life has been a light for him who in death she saw.

The funeral service will be held from the home some time tomorrow, and the remains conveyed to Georgetown, Ky., Monday morning.

EARNED NOT BOUGHT.
Such is the Reputation of "The Little Conqueror" in Mayville.
How hard it often is to earn and maintain a good reputation and how easy it is to lose one. As with a man's reputation so it is with other things in life. Some things achieve a reputation which stays with them. They are founded on intrinsic value. They face the public backed up by honesty and work their way quietly but thoroughly. Mayville people want no better proof of merit than is contained in the following experience of a citizen.

THE COMMONWEALTH.
KENTUCKY FEUDISTS.
Creed and Solomon Potter, J. Martin, Nat Bentley and Noah Reynolds in Jail.
Ola, Ky., May 4.—Several members of the kluksun gang which has been delaying arrest in the mountains for some time are under arrest.

IN THE LONE STAR STATE.
President's Reception Was a Continuation of the Ovation He Received in the South.
Austin, Tex., May 4.—Out of Dixie the president's party traveled into the heart of the great southwest. After leaving New Orleans, beautiful Bayou Teche, the home of the Acadians and the waving rice fields of western Louisiana were passed during the night, and the new oil fields of Texas whirled by just as the peep of day early to be seen by the president.

WHAT'S become of the big capitalists who elbowed the little capitalists out of the way, because the big capitalists wanted all the tobacco factory stock, and didn't want the little capitalists to have any? What has become of the tobacco factory anyway?

The plumbers of Warren, Youngtown and Niles, O., and of Meadville and Sharon, Pa., are on a strike. Perhaps they are demanding a cash-in-advance deposit in addition to the usual first mortgage which they require in part payment of their bills.

In Kenton and Campbell counties the question of abolishing their Fiscal Courts is being agitated. Beyond question, three good business men could conduct county affairs in better shape and for much less cost to the taxpayers than half the Fiscal Courts in the state.

So far this year Lexington has 85 fires.

THE LEADER acknowledges the receipt of a fine volume of poems written by that distinguished Kentuckian, the late Henry T. Stanton. Certainly no poems are more admired than Stanton's, and they are of especial interest to the people of this state, as much of the subject matter was inspired by local events. A handsome library edition can be secured for $1.50 from the Robert Clarke Company, 31-33 East Fourth Street, Cincinnati.

DIED IN DETROIT.
Mr. Thomas D. Glascock, a Native of This County, Fatally Hurt.

On Wednesday Mr. Thomas D. Glascock was on a car at Detroit, Mich., when his life blew off. In the effort to recover it he did not realize the speed of the car, but stepped off, receiving a heavy fall, his head striking the pavement and fracturing the skull. He was at once removed to Harper Hospital, and given the best of care; but yesterday morning his uncle, Mr. A. H. Glascock of this city, received a telegram from the Hospital authorities announcing his death. Deceased was a son of the late Travis Glascock of this county and was about 40 years of age. His wife, who died some years since, was a Miss Hall of Bridgeport. For the past twelve years Mr. Glascock had resided near Lexington, Ind., where he leaves three children and where the remains will be sent for interment. He had for some time been traveling in the interest of a Sanitarium at Indianapolis, and was in that employ when the accident occurred.

BIBLE CLASS.

Meeting Every Monday Morning at the Christian Church.

An opportunity is afforded all interested in the study of the Bible to join a Bible Class to be conducted by Howard T. Cren.

This class is interdenominational in its plan and anyone may become a member.

Life of Christ is to be the subject for study for three months. It is confidently expected many desiring a more thorough knowledge of the Master will join the class.

The class meets every Monday morning at 9 o'clock in the chapel of the Christian Church. Visitors will be welcome.

First session will be next Monday.

For several years Mr. Walker Whitehead has devoted himself almost entirely to the production of Shakespearean and other classic plays. His several New York City engagements were given over to the magnificent scenic productions of the Bard's great tragedies. The "Hamlet" production, it will be recalled, was a splendid one, gorgeous and complete in every detail. Last season Mr. Whitehead made a notable presentation of Stanley Weyman's "Man in Black" and this season he will be seen in what is said to be one of the strongest romantic plays written. The title of this new play is "Heart and Sword," a translation from the German. The play is neither tragic nor bombastic in tone. It is a pure love story, modern in treatment and containing much comedy of the higher order. The company in support of Mr. Whitehead is said to be an excellent one, including Miss Lela Volstead. Mr. Whitehead's engagement at the Washington Opera-house on Wednesday, May 15th, will be one of the events of the season.

There is a steady decline in the river from one end to the other, the dry weather causing it to dry up fast.

Unless a good rain comes pretty soon there'll not be packet water into Pittsburgh harbor this time next week.

The Pittsburgh and Cincinnati Packet Company is in ship shape for the excursion business, which promises to be unusually heavy this season.

Captain J. F. Ellison in speaking about it said that the conditions were better this season than ever and that all steamers were doing good excursion business and freight. The Pittsburgh packet will have orchestras on them before May 15th.

Coal shipments out of Pittsburgh by river have ceased, and one of the most prosperous shipping seasons in many years has come to an end. There have been fifty-six days of continuous navigation for shipping coal, and at no time during that period was the river below a stage of 7.5 feet. The Ohio has been navigable since March 5, and during that time upward of 10,000,000 bushels of coal were shipped, and more than 70,000,000 since navigation opened last November. It was announced that there are enough empties now available to keep the mines of the company running until June 1 and by that time between 30,000,000 and 35,000,000 bushels of coal can be loaded.

Fifteen bushels of flax from Argentina, South America, were sown as an experiment in North Dakota last year, and the result was so satisfactory that 5,000 bushels will be sown this year on about 12,000 acres of land.

The world's population of Mohammedans numbers very nearly 200,000,000. Of these, 15,000,000 are under the rule of the Turkish Government, 20,000,000 are ruled by other Muslim sovereigns, 30,000,000 are subject to African Princes, 20,000,000 live in China and 10,000,000 are under Christian rulers. Of the last, about 50,000,000 are under British rule.

George Cadbury, the English chocolate manufacturer, has presented to the city of Birmingham an estate of 418 acres, valued at $600,000, upon which to build houses for working people. The firm of Cadbury Bros. some time ago refused to fill an order from the English government for chocolates for soldiers in the Transvaal, giving as their reason that, being Friends, they disapproved of war.

Members of the Christian Church throughout this state will be interested to know that the oldest Preacher in Kentucky is a member of their organization, and resides in Bourbon county. The Preacher referred to is the Rev. Henry Miller, who was born September 10, 1818. His father, John Maritz, was a pioneer Preacher in Kentucky in the religious movement which culminated in the formation of the Christian Church.

During a recent engagement at the Great Southern Theater, Columbus, O., the Treasurer took in a bill upon which was written, "The last of $20,000," and signed Kiley Grannan, the well known bookmaker. The bill was paid out in the course of business, and fell into the hands of a business man, who at once communicated with Grannan who is now out on the San Francisco tracks, and negotiations are in progress for the return of the marked bill to Grannan, who since he set it afloat on the face of business, has made another fortune and is anxious to get the marked bill back again.

HENRY W. RASP,
SECOND STREET, NORTH SIDE.

An Open Letter.

We desire to say that our business since January 1st has passed the mark anticipated. We wish to be frank; therefore we are not attempting to talk to business people and put it in the form of a polished essay. The advantage of having merchandise different from your competitors is apparent, provided that the retailer is known to be reliable. Does not a good deal of advertising appear to you as though the advertisers were indulging too freely in fine words? Most of them seem to say something that means nothing. Names are invented for goods that have no bearing whatever to the materials; turned and twisted until they are no longer relevant, all of which is done to tone the product. Because the product hasn't enough of it. The feathers make fine birds, but fine words do not make fine goods. We are strong believers in advertising because it is a good thing, but advertising doesn't pay unless constructed on a proper basis, and that is to plainly tell people what you have to sell and sell it as low as is consistent with legitimate business methods.

Our spring importation of Dress Goods, White Goods, Carpets, Mattings and Housekeeping Goods generally is complete. Come and learn prices, which will be found to be as cheap as the cheapest, quality considered. Respectfully,

GEORGE FOX & SON.
